GALLERY BURGUIÈRES

736 Royal Street
The French Quarter
New Orleans

Gallery Burguières, a single-artist gallery featuring the work of contemporary artist Ally Burguières, opens this summer on Royal Street in the historic New Orleans French Quarter. The Gallery is owned and operated by the five Burguières sisters — Elizabeth, Ally, Tory, Evie, and Juliette — and provides locals and tourists with access to original Burguières works and limited edition, signed prints.

While rare original Burguières pieces are in collections worldwide, Gallery Burguières is the first gallery dedicated to showing original pieces by Ally Burguières and sharing the artistic style that has gained a loyal following. With oil and acrylic paints on canvas, Burguières creates a world full of color and life, celebrating nature, culture, and emotions through color and form. The Gallery is dedicated to sustainable living, and the Burguières sisters endeavor to use recycled and local products. Much of the frames and furniture in the Gallery are vintage pieces or refurbished antiques, and the sisters partner with local and family-owned businesses for secondary services such as printmaking, packing, and shipping.

A Grand Opening Soiree will be held Saturday July 16th, 2011, 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. We hope you join us for our free party to celebrate this exciting addition to the famous Royal Street in New Orleans.
